Executive pastry chef, corporate director of sales, senior revenue manager, CEO. The people making this week's hospitality moves.

The 146-room Hotel Emma in San Antonio, Texas named Andres Rizo as culinary concierge. Rizo previously held several F&B leadership roles, including beverage director, entertainment director, and general manager at hospitality hot spots, nightclubs, and restaurants in New York City, including the Boom Boom Room, The Darby, and The Double Seven. Rizo recently moved to San Antonio to pursue his own venture (he and his wife moonlight as the founders of SoundCream Airstream, a pop-up club and outdoor experience packaged out of a 1970s renovated airstream).
